

FULLERTON ENGLISH

1. Welcome to FECC Fullerton! We are honored that you have joined us for worship this morning. We invited us to join our family of faith as we gather before God, our Father, in worship and gratitude for all that He has done through the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. This morning, through the Epistle of Ephesians, we look at God's glory reflected in the reconciliation that the cross of Jesus brings to us. This morning, we also invite all baptized believers to join us for Holy Communion as we remember our Lord Jesus Christ and His sacrifice for us. If you have any prayer requests or concerns, please let Pastor David know.
2. Tax Preparation Service, Saturdays, February 17 and 24: we invite you to join in this ministry. We are looking for: (1) tax preparers, (2) hosts and (3) foods and snacks. There is an orientation today at 1:00PM in the DTC Conference Room in Cerritos. If you are interested, you can contact Pastor Len, ltan@fecc.us.
3. Lunar New Year Night Market, Saturday, 5:00 – 7:30PM, February 10: as we celebrate the Lunar New Year, we invite you to set aside this date and join us for this evening of food, games, fellowship and activities. This is a great opportunity to invite your friends to get to know our church. For more information, please see Kevin Chen or one of our pastors.
4. 2024 Preteen Winter Camp, February 23-25 (Fri-Sun): this year's theme is "Amazing" (Luke 5:26). It is for 3rd through 6th graders. The camp is hosted by Angeles Crest Christian Camp in Palmdale, CA. The registration cost is $219 and scholarships are available. For more information, please contact Pastor Tracy at ttam@fecc.us.
5. Upcoming Events: "Tax Preparation Service" Orientation Meeting (1/28); Lunar New Year Night Market (2/11); Tax Preparation Service (2/17 & 24); Preteen Winter Camp (2/23-25); FECC Missions Conference (3/1-3).
6. Prayer Requests: (1) for the "dividing wall of hostility" to be destroyed in our lives and church; (2) for our "Declare His Glory to the World Before Us and Beyond" Missions Conference and our speaker, Matt Whitlock; (3) for our Deacons and Directors as they lead us in their respective areas; (4) for the preparation and planning of our Night Market. For the event to be a good outreach event for our campus; (5) for a speedy and full recovery for those who are dealing with illness or COVID-19. For Our World: (a) for safety and protection over the devastating mix of war, poverty and winter in Ukraine and Russia, Israel and Gaza, Palestine; (b) for peace and safety in the civil war in Somalia, one of Africa's oldest wars. After 20 years of crisis, the entire country is unstable and dangerous; (c) for our brothers and sisters in Nigeria, where deadly ethnic and religious clashes continue. At least 43 people have died in two days (as of January 25) of clashes in a town in central Nigeria; (d) for relief as famine covers parts of Ethiopia. The epicenter is in the northern Tigray region. Reports of hundreds of children dying of starvation are trickling in from remote areas.

LIVE YOUR CALLING

Pastor David Tsai

As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.
(Ephesians 4:1)

There is an unusual and remarkable use of the word “calling” in Ephesians 4:1. The Apostle Paul, imprisoned because of his missionary work, writing to the Ephesians, doubles down on the use of “calling” in this verse. The letter’s recipients are to “live a life [literally, “walk”] worthy of the calling to which [they] have been called.”

We want to ask the obvious question: “So, what is the calling to which we have been called?” The answer to this question is not quite as obvious as the question itself. Paul spoke in Ephesians 1:18 of “the hope to which He has called you.” I talked about this last week. This hope, according to Ephesians, certainly includes our personal salvation by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8). But our hope is much more than that. Because of what God has done in Christ, we have the confident hope that, one day, God will bring “all things under Christ” (Eph. 1:10). God will mend this broken world, unifying that which has been divided by sin.

We, who are called to this hope, should not just wait for God to fix everything. We are to be participants in God’s work of salvation and restoration. When we accept God’s grace through faith, we are “created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do” (Eph. 2:10). We are not just observers of God’s work in the world, but partners in that work. The phrase in Ephesians 2:10 translated as “good works . . . to be our way of life” reads more literally “good works . . . that we should walk in them.” Notice how similar this is to the language of 4:1: “live a life [“walk” in Greek] worthy of the calling to which you have been called.” We walk worthy of our calling by walking in the good works God has prepared for us.

Our calling emerges from the grand story of what God has done and is doing in Christ, the story that fills Ephesians 1-3. This calling is shared by all who belong to Christ by grace through faith. It is not our specific calling to a particular work or life situation. Instead, it is the calling to embrace and to share in God’s saving, healing, renewing, life-giving work. When we say “Yes” to God’s invitation to faith, we also say “Yes” to God’s summons to live our lives in light of all He has done and will do through Christ.

Help us, Lord, to walk worthy of the calling You have given to us.
